

EPPC Kosovo, on behalf of one its client in the financial sector, is currently recruiting a qualified Database Administrator responsible to ensure that data is available, protected from loss, maintained and easily accessible as required.

Responsibilities:

- Ensure and maintains well-functioning of the database system;
- Ensure that MIS data are secure and properly stored;
- Manage database backups, logs and replications;
- Liaise with software developers as needed and test new versions of MIS;
- Prepare custom reports using SQL Server Reporting Services;
- Ensure the security of data and disaster recovery aspects of a database;
- Provide trainings to staff users as necessary (as per the plan and schedule);
- Support and co-operate with users to improve digital requirements;
- Analyze performance of MIS reports and provides ideas to improve their efficiency.

Qualifications:

- University Degree in Computer Science or relevant field is an advantage;
- Advanced knowledge of T-SQL, SQL Server, hands-on experience on designing views, triggers, stored procedures;
- At least 1 year experience as database administrator;
- Experience in designing and building applications is an advantage;
- A team player with good communication skills;
- Analytical thinking and problem-solving capability.

Facts and Figures:

Position:	Database Administrator;
Location:	Prishtine;
Contract:	According to Labor Law of Kosovo;
Deadline:	20.12.2018.

How to apply:

To apply in this position, please send your CV until 20 December 2018 and supporting document, specifying the position you are applying for "Database Administrator", at the email address:

kosovo@eppc.al

You will be contracted by EPPC only if your CV & support document will be qualified by our evaluation team.