EPPC Albania on behalf of its client, is looking for an IT Senior Delivery Manager.

We are looking for a Senior IT Delivery Manager with a strong background in managing development teams and engaging with internal stakeholders. This person will be directly responsible for 4 development teams and will act as the bridge between project requirements and operational capacity, ensuring efficiency, quality, and growth in delivery.

Responsibilities:

- Build and strengthen relationships with managers of Italian factories to identify projects for internal teams;
- Manage and optimize capacity, planning, and resource allocation across various projects;
- Supervise and support project execution at all stages, ensuring objectives are met;
- Guide and assist teams in developing standardized processes ("assembly lines") to improve efficiency;
- Ensure compliance with company delivery, governance, and quality processes, promoting standardization and adherence to best practices;
- Monitor performance, delivery metrics, and KPIs, implementing corrective actions when necessary.

Requirements for this position are:

- Demonstrated expertise in managing IT teams and delivering complex software projects;
- Deep understanding of distributed team dynamics, software development, and delivery models;
- Strong ability to build solid relationships with stakeholders and internal clients;
- Excellent planning, organizational, and problem-solving skills;
- Knowledge of key methodologies (Agile, Scrum, Kanban, etc.)
- Very good Italian and English.

What the offer includes:

- Competitive compensation package consisting of a fixed base salary and a performance-related bonus;
- Flexible working hours and the possibility of smart-working (according to the company's internal policy);
- Pension Fund;
- Preferential treatment on products offered by partner banking institution;
- Supplementary Private Health Insurance;
- Psychological well-being: online meditation courses, medical online service, and counseling service;
- Continuous learning for soft and hard skills (es. Learn/Platform, Training);
- Support for parents and children and new mothers' contributions.
